FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Hotel Zelos San Francisco Debuts Newly-Redesigned Guest Rooms

San Francisco's Stylish Hotel Unveils Sultry Design Along With New Year, New Us Room Package

SAN FRANCISCO (January 16, 2019) – Hotel Zelos, the stylish, luxury boutique hotel - part of The Viceroy Urban Retreats – located in San Francisco's bustling SoMa district, is pleased to debut its newly re-envisioned guest rooms and suites. Cool, clean and futuristic, the new design aesthetic of the hotel's 202 rooms has adopted a modern approach in both art and style. A calm and soothing palate of crisp white and warm greys surprisingly juxtaposed against a sophisticated collection of thoughtful and computer generated, modern art that playfully explores our evolving humanity. Plush yet polished, the rooms are equally elegant and sophisticated, warm and inviting. A modern take on life in a high-performance city. In celebration of Hotel Zelos' redesign, the hotel has developed the New Year, New Us package in partnership with Boon + Gable and Glamsquad, offering guests the chance to share in a New Year's transformation with us.

“As soon as guests walk through our lobby doors, they are welcomed with cutting-edge style and design,” said Ashley Gochner, general manager at Hotel Zelos. “We are thrilled to bring that electrifying energy and attitude to our guest rooms. The newly designed rooms are unique, forward thinking and contemporary – just like our guests.”

Dawson Design Associates, the firm behind the design concepts for Viceroy's Hotel Zetta, Hotel Zeppelin, and Dirty Habit, was responsible for the hotel's new design. Hotel Zelos is the fifth 'Z Collection' hotel for Pebblebrook Hotel Trust located in San Francisco.

"The Z Hotels have a very strong identity," said Dawson Design Associates' Creative Director Andrea Sheehan. "We always want the hotels to be genuine, relevant, original, artistic and ideally playfully provocative. Technology is evolving the world so quickly, the chaos and demands sometimes generated by this rapid change has a huge impact on our lives. San Francisco is synonymous with technology, so playfully fusing technology and the chaos it creates as our underlying design narrative seemed both relevant and obvious in a hotel named after the God of Chaos. How could we resist?"

In spring, the lobby of Hotel Zelos will also undergo a redesign that will feature a life-sized sculpture of the Hindu Goddess Shiva, with her many arms, all fabricated from recycled electronic parts, along with a matrix-like wall mural painted by local San Francisco artist Julie Coyle.

Hotel Zelos' special New Year, New Us package invites guests to celebrate in the refresh and feel good in the New Year. Available now through March 31, the New Year, New Us package offers guests luxury overnight accommodations paired with professional stylings from Boon + Gable, featuring an opportunity to complete a brief style profile followed by an hour-long private in-room appointment. A style expert will arrive with 20 hand-picked items that fit the guest's style, size, budget and needs. Additionally, Glamsquad will be on-hand to offer in-room makeup and hair services. As a takeaway, guests will receive an exclusive travel kit featuring items from Glamsquad's newly-released product line. Package prices start at $369 per night.
